

GREEN FINANCE SUMMIT 2018 / 17 JULY, GUILDHALL, LONDON

MAINSTREAMING GREEN FINANCE

more: www.greenfinanceinitiative.org

Green
Finance Initiative

AGENDA

#GFS2018

08:00 - 09:00	Registration & refreshments (Old Library)
09:00 - 09:20	Opening remarks Sir Roger Gifford , Chairman, Green Finance Initiative The Rt Hon the Lord Mayor of London, Alderman Charles Bowman
09:15 - 09:30	Opening keynote John Glen MP , Economic Secretary to the Treasury
09:30- 09:35	Video address TBC
09:35- 10:30	Panel 1 - TCFD: commitment and progress 275 companies have a combined market capitalization of over $7.1 trillion (from May 1) support the TCFD recommendations. Introducing these voluntary climate-related financial disclosures will mean greater transparency and information for investors to measure and respond to escalating climate risks. By assessing, mitigating and managing climate risks, businesses can promote financial stability, improve their resilience and capture opportunities. In the transition to a low-carbon economy what are the next steps needed to bring climate-related disclosures into the mainstream of financial reporting and into the heart of corporate governance? Paddy Arber , Senior Analyst, Global Public Policy and Sustainability, Aviva Investors Emma Howard Boyd , Chair, Environment Agency Tanveer Hussain , Head of Peer Supervision and Risks Division, PRA, Bank of England Rhian-Mari Thomas , Managing Director, Chair Barclays' Green Banking Council, Barclays Bank Tim Nixon , Head of Sustainability Thought Leadership and Managing Editor, Sustainability, Thomson Reuters Russell Picot , Special Advisor to the TCFD Moderator: Jessica Fries , Executive Chairman, The Prince's Accounting for Sustainability Project (A4S)
10:30 - 11:00	Refreshment break & networking (Old Library)
11:00 - 11:20	Keynote 2 & Q&A Sean Kidney , CEO, Climate Bonds Initiative
11:20 - 12:20	Panel 2 - Making Infrastructure Investment opportunities a reality Green infrastructure financing is key to our transition to a sustainable and climate resilient economy. This panel will examine the investment case for green energy and infrastructure, barriers to capital flows and how global governments and investors can facilitate green infrastructure development and financing. Mark Dooley , Global Head of Green Energy, Macquarie Capital (Europe) Limited Alban de Fay , Head of Fixed Income SRI, Amundi Asset Management Maheep Jain , Investment Director, Infrastructure Team, CDC Daniel Klier , Group Head of Strategy and Global Head of Sustainable Finance, HSBC Holdings plc Dr Heleni Pantelidou , Associate Director, Geotechnics & Infrastructure, Arup Miroslav Petkov , Director, Sustainable Finance, Financial Services, S&P Global Ratings Moderator: Peter Cripps , Editor, Environmental Finance

12:20 – 12:40	Keynote 3 & Q&A Lord Nicolas Stern, IG Patel Professor Economics and Government, LSE and Chair, Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change and the Environment
12:30 – 12:35	Chair to round up the morning
12:45 – 13:30	Lunch (Old Library)
13:30 - 14.45	Breakout sessions Running in parallel. Delegates to choose one session on a first come, first seated basis
	Green solutions – green loans and securitisation Livery Hall (lower ground level) Looking at the UK green loan market this session explores what regulatory support industry needs to facilitate further green loans and develop securitisation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Michael Sheren, Senior Advisor, Bank of England ▪ Leonie Schreve, Managing Director, Global Head Sustainable Finance, ING Bank ▪ Chris Loring, Managing Director of Lending Products, Lloyds Banking Group Moderator: Rhian-Mari Thomas, Managing Director, Chair of Barclays' Green Banking Council, Barclays Bank	Data, Risk and Disclosure Great Hall Following the publication of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) recommendations in 2016, the UK Green Finance Taskforce have also published their recommendations relating to climate risk disclosure to the UK government in April 2018. This panel will discuss key trends and developments in both the regulatory space and private sector relevant to climate risk disclosure. How can we create the most comprehensive disclosure framework in the world? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Alice Garlon, Head of Climate Change, Client Earth ▪ David Lunsford, Co-Founder and Head of Development, Carbon Delta ▪ Dr Richard Mattison, CEO, Trucost, part of S&P Dow Jones Indices ▪ Paul Simpson, CEO, CPD ▪ Faith Ward, Chief Responsible Investment Officer, Brunel Pension Partnership Ltd Moderator: Dr Ben Caldecott, founding Director, Oxford Sustainable Finance Programme, University of Oxford
	Growing the green digital finance market Print Room (mezzanine level) This session will explore how the private sector, academia and policymakers can together grow the green digital finance market and embed transformative new green finance technologies into market ecosystems. How can we unlock the potential of the green digital finance market to successfully transition to a more sustainable world? What interventions can drive further market development? Innovators and policymakers will discuss measures required to incentivise and facilitate growth. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Bram Adema, Managing Director, CFP Green Buildings ▪ Manjula Lee, CEO Founder, WWG, G17Eco ▪ Cecilia Repinski, Executive Director, Stockholm Green Digital Finance ▪ Alexandra Basirov, Managing Director, Head of Official Institutions Coverage, UK, BNP Paribas Moderator: Thomas Verhagen, Senior Programme Manager, Banking, Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership	Green and sustainable standards Basinghall Suite (Mezzanine level – Art Gallery) The HMG-GFI Green and Sustainable Standards programme will further establish UK leadership in green and sustainable finance through the delivery of an internationally applicable standards programme. In support of HMG measures to build on UK's global leadership in green finance as part of the move to a low carbon economy, and in response to challenges highlighted by the global financial community and the investment sector. Delegates will learn more about the Green and Sustainable Standards programme and how the associated benefits will accelerate green finance. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Nick Blyth, Policy & Engagement Lead, IMEA ▪ David E. Harris, Group Head of Sustainable Business at London Stock Exchange Group & Head of Sustainable Investment, FTSE Russell ▪ Simon Howard, Chief Executive Officer, UKSIF ▪ Craig Lucas, Director of Science and Innovation for Climate and Energy, BEIS ▪ Stephanie Maier, Director, Responsible Investment - HSBC Global Asset Management ▪ Richard Taylor, Director of Standards Market Development, BSI Moderator: Nick Molho, Executive Director, Aldersgate Group
	Greening the Belt and Road West Crypt (lower ground level) Green Finance will play a key role in addressing the environmental impact of the Belt and Road Initiative, a monumental development strategy announced by China which touches more than 65 countries and almost two thirds of the world's population. The City of London Corporation is working with international investors to support sustainable solutions for Belt and Road projects, providing secretariat for the Green Belt	Blue Finance and resilience East Crypt (lower ground level) It is estimated that the ocean is equivalent to the seventh largest economy in the world, worth US$24 trillion; it presents new opportunities and resources for investors and policymakers. This session will explore the blue economy concept and relevancy to the investment community. In a world that is increasingly more attuned to environmental sustainability what current initiatives demonstrate how

	and Road Investor Alliance. Workstreams in the Alliance focus on harmonising standards, capital efficiency and capacity building for Belt and Road projects. This session will include an introduction to the workstreams and a discussion on future deliverables for the Alliance. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Martina Garcia, Head of Emerging Markets Strategy, LSE ▪ Ashvin Seetulsingh, Partner, Clifford Chance ▪ Gavin Templeton, Head of Sustainable Finance, Green Investment Group Moderator: Sherry Madera, Special Advisor for Asia, City of London Corporation	blue finance is developing and what are the key areas requiring policy innovation and regulation? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Rowan Douglas CBE, Chief Executive Officer of Capital, Science & Policy Practice, Willis Towers Watson ▪ Klaas de Vos, Deputy Director, World Ocean Initiative, The Economist Group ▪ Robin Smale, Director, Vivid Economics Moderator: Justin Mundy, Willis Towers Watson; Distinguished Fellow, World Resource Institute
14:45 – 15:15	Refreshment break & networking (Old Library)
15:15 – 15:20	Welcome to afternoon session Alison Gowman, Deputy Chair, Green Finance Initiative
15:20 – 15:30	Keynote 4 Nick Bridge, Foreign Secretary's Climate Envoy, Foreign and Commonwealth Office
15:30 – 15:40	Keynote 3 - COP24 - the role of the financial sector in the Global Climate Action Agenda Tomasz Chruszczow, Special Envoy for Climate Change, Poland's High-Level Climate Champion, Ministry of the Environment
15:40 – 16:40	Panel 3 – Green finance in action globally This panel focuses on leadership in global green finance. How are nations, financial centres and other institutions demonstrating commitment and stepping up actions in green finance? How can we accelerate the development of the green finance market at an international level and maximise the impact of the financial sector in achieving green objectives? Rafael del Villar, Advisor to the Governor, Banco de México Orlando Lima, Deputy Secretary for Macroeconomic Policy at the Ministry of Finance of Brazil Philippe Zaouati, Chair, Finance for Tomorrow and CEO, Mirova Mr Hiroyuki Kato, President and CEO, DBJ Securities Co.,Ltd Moderator: Nick Robins, Professor in Practice - Sustainable Finance, Grantham Research Institute, LSE
16:40 – 17:00	Closing keynote Rt Hon Claire Perry MP, Minister of State for Energy and Clean Growth
17:00	Chair's closing remarks

Silver sponsor:

Media partner:

